Father (meaningly)—Who is the laziest one in your class, Tommy?

Tommy—I don't know, pa.

Father—I should think you should know. When all the others are industriously studying or writing their lessons, who is it sits idly in his seat and watches the rest, instead of working himself?

Tommy—The teacher.—Norman Instructor.

Judge Anderson of the U. S. District Court is pronouncing sentence recently on over one hundred men, including the mayor of Terre Haute, Indiana, for conspiracy in election frauds said:

"My notion is that the saloon will have to go. I believe that the time will come when the people will rise up and smash the saloon, at least as we have it now. The evidence in this case showed that the saloons were the center of nearly all the corruption in the election at Terre Haute."

Traveling Man's Experience

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to six p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

BLACKBERRY SHIPMENTS

Monett, up to this time, has shipped out six car loads of blackberries this season. Neosho has shipped one car.

The growers are realizing good profit on the fruit and if the weather remains favorable they will do well.

J. W. Stroud, secretary of the Ozark Fruit Growers' Association, was in St. Louis, Thursday, and found that the large quantities of Loganberries on the market interfered somewhat with the sale of blackberries. Berries are selling best in pint packages as the berries are easily mashed. Most of the Monett growers are using the quart boxes this year, but will probably use pints next season if they find that it is more profitable.
